2011 CDYST Holiday Open Wrap-up

Joe Smith of Watervliet rolled a 970 four-game series to win his first CDYST title in the Capital District Youth Scholarship Tour Holiday Open held at Towne Bowling Academy on Wednesday and Thursday December 28th and 29th. There were 50 entries for this special event where bowlers could compete anytime during the tournament hours and re-enter as often as they would like.

Smith, who was one of the first four bowlers on Day 1, started slowly. A ball change midway through Game 1 enabled him to roll five of the last six strikes and finish with 198. In Game 2, he rolled the first nine strikes in route to a 277. He completed his block with scores of 249 and 246 to set a bar that was not cleared by any other competitor. He earned a $375 scholarship for the victory.

Early in Day 2, Justin Carl of Albany began with the second 300 game in CDYST competition; he followed up with scores of 233, 215, and 176 for a 924 block to finish second and earn a $200 scholarship. Corey Buckley of Albany and Christopher Hanson of Ballston Lake finished third with a score of 897; each bowler earned a $112.50 scholarship. Bryan Admire of Schenectady and Casey Schoonmaker of Albany finished fifth with 882 ($65 scholarship each); Zachery Porter of Schenectady finished seventh with 859 ($45 scholarship); Kalynn Carl of Albany finished eighth with 844 (No prize due to NCAA regulations); and Amber Dominic of Latham and Matthew Olson of Schenectady finished ninth with 843 ($32.50 scholarships).

Bowlers also had the option to simultaneously use their singles scores in tandem with other bowlers competing at the same time to form doubles teams. Justin and Kalynn Carl topped 18 pairs with a combined score of 1768. Justin earned a $120 scholarship. Buckley and Olson finished second with 1740 ($70 scholarships) and Smith and Anthony Alix of Watervliet finished third with 1711 ($40 scholarships).

Including prizes earned by fifteen competitors for hitting the optional Clean Game Jackpot, a total of $1,705 in scholarships was awarded to our talented youth bowlers, bringing the grand total to $4,775 for the season.

Our next event will be held at 1:00 pm on Saturday, January 7, 2012 at Alpha Lanes in Troy.
